Anne-Marie Sullivan lives in Conception Bay South, NL and holds a full-time position as “Mom” to Emma, Maisy and Sophie and “Wife” to Conrad Sullivan. In her spare time, she works as a faculty member in the School of Human Kinetics & Recreation at Memorial University. Upon joining SHKR 15 years ago, Anne-Marie developed the TR program at Memorial with the first student writing the NCTRC exam in 2008. The program now boasts 36 CTRS graduates. Currently Anne-Marie is the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies and Research and hopes to further develop graduate opportunities in the area of Recreation and Leisure Studies at Memorial. She has a variety of research interests including deviant leisure, physical literacy, trauma-informed care and leisure as coping. Anne-Marie has been active with NLTRA and is passionate about furthering education opportunities for students and practitioners nationally. When not at the university or taxiing her children to activities, Anne-Marie enjoys going to the gym, swimming, reading, drinking tea and hanging out with her family.
